IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Newton Bright, Sr., one of Shelby county's oldest and wealthiest men, is dead.

An Anderson county girl shot and killed her cousin with a gun which she did not know was loaded.

Pat Norris, a well-known farmer of the Parkersville section, is in jail at Danville, charged with stealing a mule. Ed Wiseman, of Breathitt county, was shot and killed in Knott county by Bill Stacy, the proprietor of a "blind tiger."

The stockholders of the Curry Grocery Co. will meet next week to decide whether to rebuild or not, says the Danville News.

Alford Davidson, aged nine, of Rockcastle, probably one of the youngest prisoners ever arrested for violation of internal revenue laws, is in jail here awaiting trial, says a Frankfort dispatch.

Orville Ellis, a Cincinnati Negro, and Henry Letcher, a Lexington Negro, charged with insulting Mrs. Obe Mullins, of Rockcastle county, were captured. Mrs. Mullins was frightened into unconsciousness. The Negroes have confessed, each blaming the other. Trial is set for to-day.

Negotiations have been set on foot by James A. Bennett, of Richmond, for the purchase of White Hall from the other heirs. In view of the various conflicting claims of the property, the deeds are to be made pending a final settlement of the estate by the courts, which will doubtless take a number of years.

Articles of Incorporation of the Chinn Mineral Company were filed in the office of the county clerk at Harrodsburg, with a capital stock of $10,000. The nature of the business to be transacted is that of mining and selling all kinds of mineral products, oil and fire clay, buying, leasing and operating mineral lands in Mercer, Jessamine and Woodford counties. J. P. Chinn, George Morgan, George P. Chinn, Phil T. Chinn and C. D. Thompson are the incorporators.

HIGHLAND.

J. M. Young and John Meier have each dug a well during the dry weather.

Born, to the wife of Ben Lewis, a boy; also another young democrat for Dave Burton to feed.

S. M. Young left Sunday for Lewellen, Lee county, where he has a good position with the Spotswood Lumber Company.

The good rains make the farmers feel in better spirits about their corn. A lot of tomatoes are being taken from this place to the canning factory at Kingsville.

Died on the 25th, Mr. Thomas Terry, at the residence of his brother, Chas. Terry, where he had made his home for some time. His remains were laid to rest at Mt. Moriah.

Cap Butt, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out again. Misses Ora Williams and Annie Gooch, our teachers at this place and Greasy Ridge, visited their homefolks near Waynesburg. Misses Fay and Iva Cook, of Somerset, have been visiting relatives here this week. Master Chas. Pence Young visited his uncle, H. S. Young, at Somerset last week. Mrs. H. S. Young and children, who have been visiting here for some weeks, have returned to Somerset. Mrs. Sallie Speaks and babies, of Lancaster, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butt. Messrs. John W. Cook and Elmer Hughes, of Jellico, Tenn., gave us a call while en route to Somerset.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung" writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga. "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all Coughs, and Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by all Drug Stores Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c, at all Drug Stores.

"I'm Fannie, fat forty and fair, Who hated her head of red hair, So she dyed it one night, But 'twas blue in daylight, And now the poor girl's in despair."

Don't write, but come and see what we have. E. H. Beazley, Stanford, Ky.

Dysentery Cured Without Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by W. N. Craig.

The opening of the democratic State campaign at Winchester Saturday, September 5, will be a big political event. Gov. Beckham, Senator McCreary, Hon. Ollie James and the other speakers are assured of an immense audience. The keynote of the campaign will be sounded in a way so to increase the enthusiasm prevailing among the democratic hosts.

Boy Cured of Colic after Physician's Treatment had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. The funeral of Dr. David Beeler, of Powers Store, was largely attended by his many friends from Lincoln, Marion and Casey counties. His sudden death was supposed to have been caused by neuralgia of the heart. He was buried near Bradfordville. He served in the civil war as a gallant soldier of the Lost Cause.

Despite the drought that has prevailed for some months, crops of all kinds in the West End are looking fully 50 per cent. better than in many sections. Tobacco, corn, hemp and grass all show that on account of the rock not being so close to the surface, we are better prepared to grow crops in the driest seasons known to the State. When these facts are known to the home seekers, the few farms that are for sale in this locality will certainly find ready buyers.

MAKE IT THAT WAY, YOU CAN.—It has been formally announced that Hon. R. C. Warren, who was the Congressional candidate in opposition to Hon. Harvey Helm, has withdrawn from the race and given Mr. Helm the track. Both of these gentlemen are from Lincoln county and since Mr. Warren's withdrawal, Mr. Helm has a candidacy of considerable proportions. It has further been suggested that, in case Madison has no candidate for the office, it would be well for this county to support Mr. Helm in his race, remembering what Lincoln did for Mr. John B. Chenault in his recent fight for Auditor, giving him the largest majority of any county, except Madison, in the whole State of Kentucky.—Climax.

Lincoln county has supported every Madison county man who ever offered for a district, State or any other kind of office and we believe she will prove true to our candidate for Congress, Hon. Harvey Helm, who, in every way, is worthy of the high honor which he seeks.

A HERO.—News has just been received that Dr. Owen Williams, of Hustonville, has made a hero of himself by saving two Middlesboro ladies from death by drowning. A horse driven by the two ladies became frightened and plunged into the lake at a point where the water was something over 50 feet deep, taking the buggy and occupants with him. The ladies were terrorized, and of course thought they must be drowned, but Dr. Williams, who was boat riding with some girls near the scene of the disaster, quickly threw himself into the lake and swam to the unfortunate, saving both of their lives.—Advocate.

BECKNAP's business methods consist in hiring girls at beggarly wages to do his work, and in docking his employees on the most trivial grounds, says an exchange. The republican nominee for governor may know how to make dollars but he is a novice in the vote-making game, as will be seen when election day rolls around. The same paper asks this pertinent question: "Will Becknap dock his employees for the time they lose in attending his own political funeral next November?"

With the State debt paid during the present administration under a reduced tax rate, with all current claims against the Commonwealth paid in full, with a big treasury and a prospect for a reduced tax rate if the democratic party is continued in power in the State, what better platform could be constructed, and what excuse can a man have for failing to vote the democratic ticket?

VIRGINIA Negroes have raised $20,000 with which to employ John S. Wise to overthrow the new constitution. The money could be used to as good a purpose in a free-for-all crap game, facetiously remarks the Louisville Times.

Don't forget that Gov. Beckham will speak at Liberty Tuesday, Sept. 8. Hon. G. G. Gilbert, Congressman from this district, in the course of an interview in Louisville, among other things, said: "I do not intend to make a canvass for renomination until after the coming session of Congress. Then I will make a series of speeches, several in each county of my district, and I believe I will be renominated and elected. During the present campaign I will of course do what I can for the State ticket and I have offered to make speeches at any places that may be assigned me by the campaign committee. Democratic prospects never looked better in Kentucky than this fall, and victory is assured."

Whereas, at the February term 1903, of the Lincoln County Court, the grand jury impeached for said court, condemned and declared the present court house building insufficient for the purposes for which it was intended and unsafe for occupancy and directed that such action be taken as necessary to remedy the defects and avoid the danger complained of in said report of said grand jury and whereas said report of said grand jury has been presented to this court for consideration and the same having been considered, now, therefore the whole court sitting, it is considered by the court that the public convenience and safety and the preservation of the public records require that the present unsafe and inadequate court house be removed and a new one erected on the present court house lot, and it is so ordered.

Said bonds shall be signed by the presiding judge of the county court and countersigned by the county clerk of the county. It is further ordered by this court that before the bonds above mentioned shall be issued the proposition to issue same shall be submitted to the voters of Lincoln county and an election shall be held and a poll shall be opened at each of the several precincts in Lincoln county at the regular election to be held in November 1903, which said election does not occur within 60 days from the date of this order, at which said regular election November 1903, the appropriation suggested by this court as directed above, shall be submitted to the legal voters of the county for their approval or rejection; and M. S. Banghman, sheriff of Lincoln county, is hereby directed to advertise said election and the object thereof for at least 30 days next before the day thereof by printed hand bills posted up at three of the most public places in each precinct and at the county seat. If the Somerset fair is a success, and we'll wager it will be, no little of the credit will be due the Somerset Journal, which has boomed the enterprise almost in season and out. When Brer Campbell "goes a cattin'" he goes a cattin'.

BECKLEY. - Mrs. W. R. Beckley, of Lexington, died at Crab Orchard Springs of heart disease Wednesday morning, after a few hours' illness. Her husband, who has been working insurance here, joined her there Tuesday afternoon. The remains were taken to Lexington for interment.

HURT. - While the wind was blowing at a terrific rate Wednesday, Mr. Shelby Tevis was attending to some duties around his barn and starting into a door it blew against him, striking his head and knocking him senseless for awhile and cutting an ugly gash on the side of his face. Several stitches had to be taken.

JOHNSON. - Oliver Johnson, son of Postmaster J. M. Johnson, of Waynesburg, fell from a train below Somerset Wednesday and was killed. His remains were interred in the burying ground at Pleasant Point yesterday afternoon after a short service at the grave. He was about 26 years old and married a daughter of Mr. Jas. Rambo several years ago and leaves a wife and two children. He was a moral young man and respected by all who knew him.

THE Danville News pays a Lincoln county gentleman the following highly deserved compliment: "Hon. M. F. North has announced himself as a candidate for assistant clerk of the House, subject to the action of the democratic caucus. Mr. North is the present representative of Lincoln county, whose term expires this year. He is one of the strongest men in the House, a thorough and consistent democrat, an elegant gentleman and a hard worker in behalf of the party. In every way he is thoroughly capable and reliable and would be a splendid man for the place to which he aspires. The News with a host of other friends extend to him their heartiest wishes for success."

KENTUCKIANS OUT WEST. - Mr. Fred P. Bishop, a former Lincoln county man who has been on a visit here, tells us that he is doing well at Ponca City, O. T. He says he had this year 2,300 acres of wheat and got from it 35,000 bushels. He has handled about 500 cattle in the last year and has done reasonably well with them. He is buying considerable "dead Indian" land at $15 per acre. His brother, W. B. Bishop, is merchandising at Ponca City, but has a big wheat lease. R. E. Gaines, also an ex-Lincoln county man, is doing well but will return to this county about Jan. 1 and take charge of his farm near Walnut Flat. George S. Shelby is doing a thriving livery business and also runs successfully a feed store and dairy. He farms largely and has about 1,100 acres in corn. Mr. Shelby handles a large number of cattle. When Mr. Bishop left home Mr. S. was busily engaged in cutting his crop of 1,200 acres. He has 4,000 acres of land leased at 25c to $1 per acre. Mr. D. S. Johnson, formerly of the McKinney section, is preparing to open a bank at Ponca City. T. L. Lillard is feeding 200 cattle and is farming extensively, cultivating about 1,200 acres. J. M. Hill had in a good big wheat crop and has 1,000 acres in corn. The Miller Brothers have 2,000 acres in corn that Mr. Bishop thinks will make 50 to 80 bushels per acre. Mr. J. E. Carson's wheat crop of 20,000 bushels has been harvested and he has several hundred acres of fine corn. He is an extensive farmer and is buying Indian land wherever he can do so. Mr. Bishop enjoyed his visit to his native home but was glad to get back to Oklahoma, which country he thinks is the greatest on the globe.

THOSE indebted to Craig & Hocker will please settle at once, a dissolution of partnership makes it necessary to close our books. W. N. Craig, Pharmacist, successor to Craig & Hocker.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. - Bud Owsley was accidentally shot by Robert Helm, also colored. Both are from the Hubble section. The ball passed entirely through the bowels. Owsley died yesterday morning from the effects of the wound and will be buried to-day.

SOLE OUT. - Mrs. Garland Singleton has sold to the Misses VanDeveer, daughters of Mr. M. Owen VanDeveer, her stock of millinery and good will. They will continue the business at the same stand - back of the postoffice - where they cordially invite the ladies to give them a call.

COLORS FAIR. - The colored fair which is going on in the Goodknight woodland, near town, this week is not drawing like a mustard plaster, as the association would wish, but the colored people are enjoying themselves and the association is having a good show of stock, and giving liberal premiums. The fair continues through Saturday.

SKULL FRACTURED. - While out hunting rabbits Wednesday, the breach of Mr. William Daugherty's gun in firing, struck him in the forehead and fractured his skull and he is now in a critical condition. He killed the rabbit, but he may lose his own life in doing so. Mr. Daugherty lives in the Hales Well section and is a hard working, honest man and it is hoped he will soon recover.

WRAY. - The community was shocked beyond measure yesterday morning about 10 o'clock when it was announced that the beautiful little child of 14 months, Mary Wray, had passed into the great beyond, after an illness of cholera infantum of only a few days. She was the ideal of her fond parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Wray, who have the sympathy of the whole community in their great loss. God knows best and has called the precious little one home to mingle ever more with the angels in that celestial city where pains and sorrows are known not. The burial will take place in Buffalo Cemetery this afternoon, after services at the home at 4:30.

TERRY. - Mr. J. Thomas Terry died at the home of his brother, Mr. Charley Terry, on Green river, Tuesday afternoon of consumption, aged 48 years. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church and was an exemplary citizen in every way. He was county assessor for four years and made a good official, being the only republican ever elected to that position in the county. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Cook, of Highland, at Mt. Moriah church Wednesday afternoon and his remains were laid to rest at the church burying ground. He was a member of the Odd Fellows' lodge at this place and a number of the members attended the burial in a body and held the usual fraternal services at the grave. A good citizen is gone. Peace to his ashes.

LIBERTY FAIR. - An immense crowd attended the Liberty fair yesterday and saw a fine show of stock and hotly contested races. The weather was good, the order perfect and the day was a big one in Liberty's history. In the cattle rings Mr. T. L. Carpenter, of this county, made almost a clean sweep of the premiums with his splendid black cattle, which were greatly admired. Lincoln Wells was a big winner in the various classes, getting four blues and two reds out of eight shows. W. W. Lyon won the roadster premium with his fine sorrel mare. Irve Pitman was second and Dave Wilcox third. O. P. Bowman won the plug horse race and Robert Cravens, of Russell, captured the mule race. Joe Coffey, of Columbia, took six blues out of seven shows with his good string. Patrick Napier won the 2:40 trot. W. W. Lyon got second money and Dave Wilcox third. In the three minute class Dave Wilcox won first money, Pat Napier second and Herbert Warriner third. The running race did not fill. A splendid program will be carried out today, when a record-breaking crowd is expected to be present. In the game of ball Wednesday Hustonville defeated Stanford 20 to 4. The officers and directors of the fair are exerting themselves to make everybody have a good time and right well they are succeeding.

FINED. - A. A. Yocum was fined $50 in Judge J. P. Bailey's court for assaulting Presley Sluder with a deadly weapon. He is serving the fine out in jail. The trial of John Will Walls for the same offense, was continued.

BAGBY. - Mr. C. L. Bagby, one of the most prominent citizens of Boyle county, died at his home in that city of appendicitis. He was in the 69th year of his age and had resided in Boyle county for the past 10 years. He was the father of Hon. Chauncey Bagby. He was a relative of Mr. W. O. Speed, of this place, who attended his funeral yesterday.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb, Vice-President Woman's Democratic Club of Northern Ohio.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

WHEN THINGS GO WRONG.

When things go right it isn't hard To keep a pleasant, cheerful face, For other folk to have regard And grant requests with smiling grace.

Sometimes fate knocks a man around And scourages him with double thong— It's not so easy, I have found, When things go wrong.

When things go right we can agree With anyone on anything. There's good in all that we can see And joyous are the songs we sing.

But leaden grow the dancing feet, We have to sing another song And trouble sours our little sweet When things go wrong.

When things go right we can be good And all the Christian virtues show— Do unto others as we would Be done by—seeds of kindness sow.

Still, all my praise I will reserve For him who, battered hard and long, Still keeps his temper and his nerve When things go wrong.

CAUTION.—This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectation and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists At Penny's Drug Store
